

New Office Location:

56 William St
Portland 04103

(please note: there is also a Williams St in Portland, so just be careful when entering it into your GPS)

My private practice will have a new home! The move-in date is 11/15/2019. It's on the first floor of a therapist owned building (yahoo!), in a home like setting. There are only 3 other offices in the building.

The building (pictured above) sits on the corner of William and Oakdale St, a few blocks from USM. Parking is on street, and should not be hard to find.

The entrance to the waiting room is up the stairs that you see in the photo above. The small driveway that leads to the stairs is off of William St.

Make yourself comfortable in the waiting room (there is a kitchen if you want to fill up your water bottle). I look forward to introducing you to the space and my new office.

If you have any trouble finding me, give me a call or text me at 207-370-5520. I may be in session just before you come, but I will be in touch ASAP.

Please note: Due to allergies and sensitivities, the landlord requests that clients refrain from wearing/applying perfumes and essential oils before sessions. For the same reason, no smoking is allowed on premises and no pets are allowed on site. Thank you for understanding!
